EMBLEMATIC SITES

DAY 1

The island's inner coastline

Le Palais, Sauzon and Pointe des Poulains

Morning:

Discover Le Palais, the island's small capital, by taking a stroll through the historic centre and passing through the town walls.

At the end of this tour, you can head to the port of Sauzon, a colourful old fishing port.

Afternoon:

Head to La Pointe des Poulains, one of the island's must-see sites! The tragedienne Sarah Bernhardt spent her summers here. Visit* her elegantly restored fort. A walk to the Phare des Poulains lighthouse is a must, from where you may be able to see the island of Groix. Finally, head to the Maison du Littoral, an essential stop to understand the wild and unspoilt beauty of the island.

During the season and on certain holidays as part of a guided tour.*

Evening:

Goat's cheese galette from the island or seafood platter... The choice is yours!*

DAY 2

The island's wild coastline

The Grand Phare lighthouse, the Aiguilles de Port Coton rocks and Donnant beach

Morning:

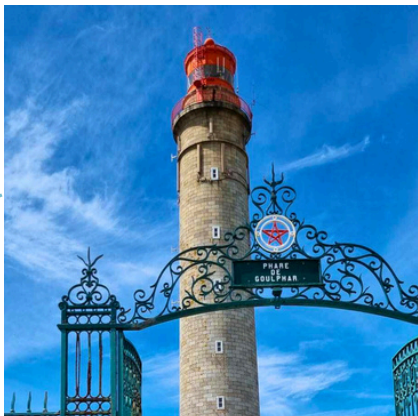

Visit the Belle-Ile Lighthouse, one of the most powerful in Europe. After climbing* the 247 steps of this stone giant, discover the most breathtaking view of Belle-Ile! From the lighthouse, take the path through the moor to discover the famous Aiguilles de Port Coton, immortalised by the painter Claude Monet.

During the season and on certain holidays as part of a guided tour*

Afternoon:

After all that effort, it's time to relax! Head to Donnant beach, one of the most beautiful on the wild coast. Enjoy some Breton-style relaxation, swimming in the sea and soaking up the sun. Return to Le Palais at the end of the day. Treat yourself to one last indulgence (ice cream, crêpes, etc.) at the port of Le Palais and enjoy watching the pretty ballet of sailboats anchoring for the night.

Already time to leave... We bet you'll be back!
